Dear Mr. Slease,

We refer to your telefax of 10/06/1988 and would like to comment as follows:

1. Commercial conditions

We agree with the retainer of US$ 15'000.-- and reasonable expenses. Additional expenses have to be agreed upon.

2. Documentation

We sent today by DHL (Mr. Thielle has already left) the following documents:

- copy of contract
- copy of application to DOC
- reference list

3. F-18 Hornet Purchase by Swiss Air Force

On 10/03/1988 the Swiss Government decided to purchase 34 F-18 from McDonald Douglas / Northrop for approx. 2 billion US Dollars.

FFA Aircraft Works were represented in the Swiss industry evaluation body and strongly supported the American solution against the French and Swedish competitors.

A precondition for this contract was a substantial participation by the Swiss industry. Since we are the No. 2 aircraft manufacturer and maintenance facility of Switzerland, we will certainly participate in the F-18 co-production. In order to maintain our manufacturing technology for such programs, it is vital that we can continue to produce our own training aircraft (Bravo, FFA 2000).

We, and with us the a.s.i.a. (Swiss Aerospace Industry Association) would consider a negativ decision by the U.S. authorities re our Iran contract, as an unfriendly act and would react accordingly.

Yours faithfully
